THE RAMBLINGS OF PASTOR REPPA

Dear Calvary Family and Friends,

January 6, 2021

Today is the 12th day of Christmas. That is right, 12 drummers drumming. Sometimes that is how I feel when this world is so loud. Sitting in my car at the pharmacy window yesterday, a car drove in behind me. The music was playing so loud and the base beat actually vibrated my car. There were at least 12 drummers drumming. ☺ In the song, the 12 drummers stand for the 12 beliefs in the Apostles creed. The ‘things’ we believe about the Christian faith.

Today, is also Epiphany. Epiphany is when we observe, remember or acknowledge the visit of the Wise Men, 3 Kings, or Magi to the home of the Christ child. We do not know for sure how long it took them to travel from the east to Bethlehem. Plus, we are not sure there were three. What we do know is, there were 3 gifts: gold, frankincense and myrrh.

These 3 gifts declared Jesus was King of kings, God & priest, (Priest means bridge. He is the bridge between God and us.) And Myrrh announced that he was a sacrifice. All of these ‘facts’ were announced when Jesus was 2 years old at the most. All the announcements and visits were in the quietness of a stable or in the privacy of the family’s home. God speaks in a whisper if we listen. If not, then God speaks with the voice louder than 112 drummers.

As the new year begins, I ask you to ponder with me what our gifts and the time we spend seeking the Christ Child announces about Jesus in our lives. Do our gifts tell about how we see the Lamb of God, the Light of the World, the Great Physician, the Living Water, the King of kings, Lord of lords, the Good Shepherd, Lord and Savior.???

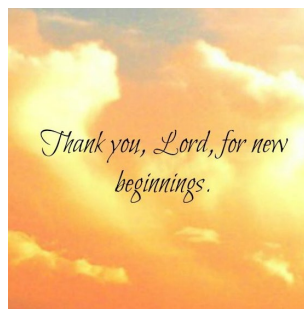

Or do we just share some of our ‘spare’ time and offer the ‘left-overs’ to the Christ?

Once again, I am just pondering the big picture of Epiphany (the manifestation of Christ to the Gentiles) seen through my narrow scope. So, I wonder.

Thinking of you. Praying for you. And loving you.

Pastor Reppa

This Sunday Rev. Reppa will be offering the sermon entitled “New Beginnings” with the Scriptures being Genesis 1: 1 ~ 5; Matthew 3: 13 ~ 17.

Continued thanks and praise to all who to help keep the church safe for services to be held in our building. Also to those who make it possible to watch using Facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/revreppa/live>. You may view the service while it is live or any time after it is finished.

Prayer Requests ~ A Pastoral Prayer is lifted up each Sunday morning with the needs of ALL rather than specific requests being shared by individuals during the worship service. Prayer request papers are available at the door upon entering the Sanctuary along with the Order of Worship papers. Please place prayer requests in the appropriate basket when leaving worship. Please keep the following in your thoughts and prayers:

Shedrick and Martha Geyetay traveling mercies and they travel to Africa

Rick Robison's brother Donald in hospital in Kansas

Kevin Gould's uncle passed away.

Martha Buxton who will be undergoing medical tests this week.

Praise that June Allen is doing very well and is looking forward to attending worship as soon as possible.

Those who are currently unemployed and face financial difficulties due to the virus.

Continued prayers for our SLT, Pastoral Search Committee and Stewardship Ministry.

Stewardship Moment ~

Dear Calvary,

As we begin a new year and fresh beginnings, please read Romans Chapter 12. Here is scripture that we are encouraged to read, understand and practice doing.

Romans 12:10, ESV: "Love one another with brotherly affection. Outdo one another in showing honor." Romans 12:10, KJV: "Be kindly affectioned one to another ..."

We can honor others in one of two ways. One involves ulterior motives. We honor our bosses so they will reward us, our employees so they will work harder, the wealthy so they will contribute to our cause, the powerful so they will use their power for us and not against us. God's other way involves love. As Christians, we honor people because they have been created to God's image, because they are our brothers and sisters in Christ, and because they have a unique contribution to make to Christ's church. Does God's way of honoring others sound too difficult for your competitive nature? Why not try to outdo one another in showing honor? Put others first!

As we move through 2021 let us be a shining light for the neighbors surrounding Calvary church. Please contribute to the church budget with your tithes, offerings and service to honor the Lord. You may submit a commitment card to make your yearly, monthly or weekly pledge which will help God's servants serve His people. Amen!

In His Service,
Carol Hall-Walker
