Thank you, Carol Hall-Walker, and Rev. Erica Traub for providing all these pictures!

EASTER SUNDAY BAPTISMS!!

Lindsey Resendes, Prudence Weah and Janjay Augusta Tonie Barnard

Gospel choir sang “He Has Risen” led by Rev. Erica on Easter morning.

Praise dancers and interpretation of the risen Christ. Easter was special with our youth expressing “Don’t Cry Wipe Your Eyes He’s Not Dead”

On Easter, Rev. Erica preached “And the Earth Did Quake” truly this man was the son of God.

Calvary was pleased to have Rev. Dr. Daniel Cottrell join us for Easter service.

Emmanuel Traub passes the lay readership role to Rodry Jimenez. Our young people are stepping up. Praise God.

Calvary thanks Dorothy Yoreo for her service to our Lord through Calvary Baptist Church Easter morning hymns.

Sister Selcon Barnard has the youth group moving forward! What a blessing!!

SOCK TREE UPDATE ~

Thank you to all who donated clean, white socks for our sock tree! 49 pairs were given to Crossroads for distribution.

Thank you, Wendy Fox, for delivering these!

Trivia Answer: If you're looking for a Big Mac in Sedona, Arizona you'll need to head for the turquoise arch. Because thousands of visitors go to Sedona to enjoy the beauty of the red rock formations the city council decided that turquoise arches would be more visually appealing and won't disrupt the landscape!

Have a great rest of your month!!
